

SUMMER FUN

2020 STYLE

bucket list

There is no mistaking it; summer will look a tad different this year. But, that doesn't mean that the "fun" will be lost. It's time to start new traditions and create new memories with the kids this year while the world is settling back into our new normal. Start a summer time bucket list to keep kids busy, entertained and the whole family engaged and happy!*

- ☐ Finish a 1000 piece puzzle
- ☐ Complete a Harry Potter movie marathon

- ☐ Have s'mores by the fire
- ☐ Water balloon Fight
- ☐ Have a friendship-bracelet-making party

- ☐ Go to a drive-in movie
- ☐ Camp in the backyard
- ☐ Build a fort inside
- ☐ Board game marathon

- ☐ Learn a new language as a family

- ☐ Try a new dinner

- ☐ Watch all the Avengers movies in order

- ☐ Go stargazing at Payne's Prairie

- ☐ Go watch the bats fly at night at the UF bat house

- ☐ Plant a flower garden

- ☐ Float down Ginny Springs

- ☐ Put your toes in the Atlantic and Gulf of Mexico

- ☐ Send out postcards to all your family and friends to say hi!

- ☐ Fly a kite

- ☐ Dance in the rain (no lightning please)

- ☐ Take one family photo every day for a 2020 summer album

- ☐ Tie dye shirts (see our how-to guide on gigglemagazine.com)

- ☐ Start a gratitude journal

- ☐ Build sandcastles on the beach

- ☐ Watch a sunrise

- ☐ Catch a sunset

- ☐ Eat at a restaurant featured on Food Network

- ☐ Go fishing

- ☐ Unplug for a full day

- ☐ Make root beer floats

- ☐ Family book club: All read the same book and discuss

- ☐ Watch the ducks at the North Florida Regional Medical Center Duck Pond

Find more free printables at
GIGGLEMAGAZINE.COM

